

Syringa meyeri Palibin

BOUNTIFUL FARMS

The hardy Palibin Korean Dwarf Lilac produces panicles of tiny, delicate, single lilac-pink flowers. Initial spring bloom occurs in early to mid-May, followed by a second show in early September. Palibin will begin to produce these deliciously scented blooms at a young age. Compact and slow growing. For best flower production, plant in full sun.

17280 Boones Ferry Rd NE Woodburn OR 97071

(503) 981-7494

www.bountifulfarms.com